MESSAGE OF HIS DEATH RECEIVED
AT HEADQUARTERS BY THE UNDERMENTIONED
A. LUND

STAVELEY OFFICER KILLED.

By the death in action of Second-Lieut. B. M. (Benny) Badcock, only son of Dr. B. and

Mrs. Badcock, of Staveley, the North-East Derbyshire mining village has lost one of its most popular personalities. The news came to hand on Thursday last week, when the doctor received a letter under date July 9th from the Rev. W. A. Blackwell, C.P., informing him of the sad event. Second-Lieut. Badcock, who was only 20 years of age, was educated at Derby, Chesterfield

If ever you're feeling sad,
And the outside weather bad,
And all, inside and out

Has so very grown.

Just try a simple plan,
And try, as hard as ever you can.

To make a little Sunshine.

Of your own.
