

Intro@ection

This typescript is a transcript of the earliest surviving Jurors List for the county of Derbyshire, being that for 1775. The original document (Ref: Q/RJ 2/1) resides the Derbyshire Record Office, as part of the records of the Derbyshire Quarter Sessions, and is available on microfilm (Ref: KM 1/235 item 5). The five parishes that comprised the Borough of Derby are not included as Derby had its own Quarters Sessions, and thus drew up their own Jurors List.

From 1696 onwards, parishes were required to forward lists to the Quarter Sessions of eligible jurors, the qualification being based on property. In 1696, men aged 21 to 70, who possessed freehold, copyhold or life-tenure property worth at least £10 qualified for jury service. This was extended in 1730 to include long-term leaseholders of property valued at or above £20. It was the responsibility of the Parish Constable to draw up the list for his parish and forward it to the Quarter Sessions and in the majority of cases he is named, even if he himself is not qualified to serve on a jury.

In this transcript, virtually all contractions of words, such as Christian names and titles (excluding Mr), have been expanded to their full version. The original parish order in the document is alphabetical within each hundred, and this has been kept, however to aid location of specific parishes, a locations index has been added at the front, and to aid location of specific surnames, there is a surname index at the back.
