THANKS for your trucky

P.C, Im sending you one of Jack in return but for some reason or other he doesnt look very happy, I think something must have upset him.

Glad you liked the photo, yes, Ive given up hopes of getting one of the Chapman Family + I think it is a good suggestion of yours to go on your own, but Spely the poor chap's camera!

PERSONALLY, I'd prefer ~~two~~ separate ones as it seems so awkward for you all to be at once & then in single ones you get the full view of the individual, particularly when only the bust is taken like my last ones, whilst in groups the features are so very much condensed.

How do you like the enclosed the other young fellow is my chum and hails from Shrewsbury & was in the same profession as your Thornhill Cousins prior to the War. We are now having glorious weather, myself, with love from Mum.
