My pal is just about going party, I shall write a letter but together I shall have just nearly gallon out of the bottle. I say where there's no sexual desire, I mean I don't feel the former applies to him well but he doesn't seem to give a damn that part you are a beast for not sending me your weight suppose you was too fat to kill at Inns & all afraid to own it eh! I'll bet you'd be a good specimen to send to Germany to show them how the Food Controller order are carried out.
