1784 - 1800

INDEX OF DEREYSHIRE QUARTER SESSIONS

ASSIARY ORDERS

TRANSLATION SESSIONS 1784 - MICHAELMAS SESSIONS 1800

This index is an index of all the bastardy orders that appear in the Derbyshire Quarter Sessions Order Books between the Translation Sessions 1784 and the Michaelmas Sessions 1800 inclusively. This covers the order books 1781 to 1785 inclusively, the volumes themselves being at the Derbyshire Record Office at Matlock, and these should be referred to in order to discover what the actual decision of the Sessions was.

In the index itself, the layout is as follows:-

1. SURNAME - the surname of the individual.
2. FORENAME(S) - the Christian names of the individual.
3. ABODE - where the individual comes from (in cases where the individual is either in the County Gaol or one of the Houses of Correction and their normal abode is not given as well, the County Gaol or the relevant House of Correction will appear in this column. All individuals can be assumed to come from Derbyshire, unless they have a County code included in their ABODE entry.
4. OCCUPATION/STATUS - in the case of men, their occupation.
in the case of women, the marital status.
5. OSM - the Order Book reference number.
6. P - the page number of the relevant Order Book
7. SESS - the year and session: EP - Epiphany
EA - Easter
TR - Translation
MI - Michaelmas
8. CROSS-REF - the surname of the other individual involved.

The following abbreviations have been used:-

-----	Missing information	NTH	Northamptonshire
SRD	3rd Regiment of Foot Guards	NTT	Nottinghamshire
C.G.	County Gaol	G.	Quarter
CHS	Cheshire	STS	Staffordshire
H.C.	House of Correction	WRY	West Riding, Yorkshire
LAN	Lancashire	YKS	Yorkshire
LEC	Leicestershire

Multiple entries normally have one of two causes:-

- i. where all columns are identical except for CROSS-REF - this implies that the CROSS-REF individual has an alias in its surname and will have entries for both surnames.
- ii. where all columns are the same except for SESS - if the session dates are consecutive this implies a case that has, for a variety of possible reasons, been held over to the next session. The most common reason was that the child had not yet been born - this could go on for several sessions.

ILLEGITIMACY & ADOPTION

- 1575/6 Justices allowed to remove parents of an illegitimate child.
- 1607/8 Father children to be apprenticed
- 1601/1640 Poor Law Acts
- 1609/18 Father of an illegitimate child could be sent to prison unless she was able to give sureties for her good behaviour. Generally the child was given same settlement rights as its mother. If the father was from another parish and married the mother then the whole family would be settled in father's parish
- 1662/1691/1697 Acts of Settlement
- 1722/3 Knatchbull's General Workhouse Act. Bastards did not receive settlement in parish of birth only in mother's settlement parish. Children of vagrants could be apprenticed against will of parents)
- 1732/3 Mother obliged to declare she was pregnant with illegitimate child and to state the name of the father. Father to be apprehended and committed to goal unless he could give sureties to indemnify parish from any expense
- 1743/4 A bastard born in a place where the mother was not settled to have its mother's parish of settlement and the mother to be punished by a public whipping
- 1795 Every unmarried woman with a child shall be deemed chargeable and taken to be a person chargeable and thus then allowed her removal to the place of her last settlement
- 1810 Two justices could sentence an unmarried mother for a limited term of between 6 weeks and 12 months in a House of Correction. If she showed signs of having "reformed" before her sentence was up she could be released at the order of two justices. No woman was to be committed until she had been delivered of her child for the space of one calendar month.
- 1839/1844 Poor Law Amendment Acts empowered the mother of an illegitimate child to apply to the Justices in Petty Sessions for a maintenance order against the alleged father.
- 1926 Adoption Act
- 1926 Legitimacy Act (re-registration of illegitimate children after marriage of parents)

ADOPTION

Adoptions were made legal by the Adoption of Children Act of 1926. The Legitimacy Act of 1926 amended the law relating to children born out of wedlock (legitimation by the subsequent marriage of parents). Successive acts were passed but the most important was the 1975 Children Act when radical changes took place in the law. One clause in particular was regarding access to original birth records by an adopted person on reaching the age of 18 years. (In Scotland the age is 17 years). For adoption before the 12th November 1975 counselling is necessary before the original birth certificate can be obtained (this does not apply in Scotland). Counselling is not mandatory for adoptions after 1975 but adoption agencies and social services departments may be able to provide further background details thus making a search much easier.
